

BUTT LITTERING
IT'S NOT A GOOD LOOK

QUEENSLAND

Reporting Litterers

How can I report litterers?

There is no specific reporting line for litter in Queensland.

However some Authorised Officers in local council can issue fines for littering.

Please contact the local council responsible for the area where the littering occurred.

Anything else I need to know?

Keep Australia Beautiful Queensland has extensive experience in the area of litter prevention and management in Queensland.

They may be able to assist with any queries that you have in relation to litter. Ph. 07 3252 2886

The responsibility for litter law is covered under the Litter Act 1971 in Queensland.

(Source: Department of Environment, Climate Change and Water www.environment.gov.au)

Disclaimer: This information is considered correct at time of publishing. Butt Free Australia disclaims responsibility for any loss or damage suffered by any person relying, directly or indirectly, on this information. July 2011)